

CLUB RULES 3-1-16

Resigned members returning as guests renting from a non-club member

Should a resigned member, or spouse, in good standing who does not own a dwelling within one hundred miles of the Club, wish access to club facilities during a two-week period annually, they and members of their immediate family may have use of the club in accordance with their golf or social membership status upon resignation. Golf cost will be charged as accompanied guest and restaurant charges will be authorized by credit card. These previous members will be considered "house guests" in accordance with Article XI GUEST PRIVILEGES.

Number of Golf Rounds for Social Members

Any member becoming or joining as a social member in 2010 or after shall be allowed to play golf five times a year. Any member becoming or joining as a social member prior to 2010 are grandfathered in 12 rounds of golf per year. The social members are required to pay applicable green fees and cart fees.

Golf play by non-member who is a property owner

An individual who is the owner of a dwelling within twenty-five miles of the club may use the golf facilities as a guests three times a year.

Country Club Use by Local Guests

Members may invite non-members in Madison County and Yancy counties to be an accompanied guest a maximum of four times per year.

Tenant guests renting from a non-WLCC member are entitled to two rounds of golf and two dining privileges.

Golf Facility Fees and Charges

Golf facility charges shall be posted in a prominent location within the pro shop. All golf facility fees and charges shall be set by the board of directors and/or club manager at its discretion.

Reactivation fee for membership from redemption list

Upon an approved application and the payment of two thousand dollars ($2000) [golf] or one thousand dollars ($1000) [social] a resigned member who has not received his/her equity will be removed from the redemption list and returned to active status within the same classification they resign from. Dues and food minimum will be prorated to the time of application acceptance. This club rule for reactivation can only be used one time.

Reactivation fee for resignation in a calendar year.

No reactivation fee will be charged for those members choosing to reactivate their membership in the calendar year in which they resigned. Dues and assessments will be charged for that calendar year.

Change of classification from social to golf membership

Owners of social memberships may make an application to the board in change classification to a golf membership if one is available. Upon the approval of the application, holders of social memberships who joined after 2012 may be classified as golf members upon payment of the difference between the current costs of a social membership and a golf membership. (Per the bylaws Article IX Paragraph 13) Holders of social membership who joined before 2012 may be classified as golf members without any additional cost, (this does not include transferred memberships). Dues for the year will be prorated. If a social member upgrades to golf, the member must pay golf dues for at least a year before he can transfer a golf membership. He can transfer a social membership in that year.

Club Statement and Payment Policy

- A) The Member's statement of account will be closed on the last day of each month.
- B) The statement will include all charges made at the Club for that month, plus any dues or assessments issued that month.
- C) The payment of the balance stated in the statement is due on the last day of the month in which it is distributed. Disputes may be registered within 30 days after receipt of the statement.
- D) Past Due Amounts - If the Member's statement of account or a portion thereof remains outstanding through the fifteenth day of the following month, a letter or email will be sent to the member reminding him/her of the past due amount and the Club's payment policy.
- E) Suspension of Charging Privileges - If the Member's statement of account or a portion thereof remains outstanding through the last day of the following month, the Member's charging privileges will be suspended and a letter or email will be sent to the member reminding him/her of the past due amount and the Club's payment policy.
- F) Suspension of Club Privileges - If the Member's statement of account or a portion thereof remains outstanding through the last day of the second following month, the Member's Club privileges will be suspended and a letter or email will be sent to the member reminding him/her of the past due amount and the Club's payment policy.
- G) Reactivation of Charging and Club Privileges – Any member that has privileges suspended will be reactivated within 3 days of account being paid in full.
- H) Any exception to the above policy needs to be approved by the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors.
- I) Further actions for the collection of past due amounts will be at the discretion of the Board.